iLearn: Announcement Tool

Our team is constantly working with D2L Brightspace to improve the ease and usability of iLearn.

During the winter break, the Announcement Tool within your iLearn course home page was relocated to the center of the page. If you would like to move the announcements back to the side panel, follow the steps in this guide.

To learn how to send an announcement to multiple courses, follow these steps.

To find out about other changes and updates to the tools in iLearn, you can just register for our upcoming workshop on Tuesday, January 30th, at 11 AM.
