

Tennessee Tech University

Financial Responsibility Statement

This Financial Responsibility Statement outlines the obligations and responsibilities of students with respect to tuition, fees, and other charges assessed by the University.

Payment of Fees / Promise to Pay

By registering for classes or receiving services from Tennessee Tech University (the "Institution"), I understand and agree that I am accepting full responsibility to pay all tuition, fees, and other associated charges assessed as a result of my registration and/or receipt of services. If I drop or withdraw from some or all classes, I remain responsible for paying all or a portion of tuition and fees in accordance with the published tuition refund schedule.

Failure to attend classes or receive a bill does not relieve me of my financial responsibility. If I expect financial aid to pay all or part of my charges, I understand it is my responsibility to meet all requirements for disbursement.

Delinquent Account / Collection

If I fail to pay my financial obligations when due, the Institution may place a financial hold on my account, assess late fees, refer my account to a collection agency, or report my delinquent account to credit bureaus.

Communication

The Institution uses University-assigned email addresses as an official method of communication. I am responsible for reviewing communications in a timely manner. I authorize the Institution and its agents to contact me regarding my student account using phone, email, text messages, or automated dialing systems.

Billing Errors

Administrative, clerical, or technical billing errors do not relieve me of responsibility to pay the correct amount of tuition, fees, or other charges.

Returned Payments / Failed Payment Agreements

If a payment is returned by the bank, I agree to repay the original amount plus any applicable returned payment fees and late charges. Multiple returned payments may result in additional restrictions.

Financial Aid

Financial aid listed as estimated or authorized does not represent guaranteed payment. If financial aid is adjusted or revoked, I agree to repay any aid disbursed to my account.

IRS Form 1098-T

I agree to provide my correct Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number upon request for IRS Form 1098-T reporting purposes.

Entire Agreement

This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the student and the Institution regarding financial responsibility and supersedes all prior agreements.
