

What is TECTA ORIENTATION?

TECTA Orientation is an “academic gateway” to your education. It is a comprehensive training opportunity into the field of Early Childhood Education or related areas. The curriculum is centered on professional core competencies that will enhance your abilities as an ECED professional. Participants gain practical and useful skills that they’re able to use in their child care setting.

TECTA ORIENTATION SPECIALIZATION

INFANT/TODDLER	For providers working with children 6 weeks to 3 years.	Topics: 1) Professionalism 2) Family Relationships 3) Child Development 4) Developmentally Appropriate Practice I 5) Developmentally Appropriate Practice II 6) Observation & Assessment 7) Learning Environment 8) Health & Safety 9) Guidance 10) Individual & Cultural Diversity
CENTER-BASED	For providers working with children 3 to 5 years old.	Topics: 1) Professionalism 2) Family Relationships 3) Child Development I 4) Child Development II 5) Developmentally Appropriate Practice II 6) Learning Environment 7) Guidance 8) Individual & Cultural Diversity 9) Observation & Assessment 10) Health & Safety
ADMINISTRATOR	For Owners, Directors, and Assistant Directors.	Topics: 1) Professionalism 2) Leadership 3) Organizational Management 4) Financial Management 5) Program Development I 6) Program Development II 7) Family & Community Relations 8) Staff Recruitment, Selection, Orientation 9) Staff Supervision 10) Staff Development
FAMILY	For Family and Group Home Providers.	Topics: 1) Professionalism 2) Family Relationships 3) Business of Family Child Care 4) Individual & Cultural Diversity 5) Child Development I 6) Child Development II 7) Developmentally Appropriate Practice 8) Guidance 9) Learning Environment 10) Health & Safety
SCHOOL-AGE	For providers with children 5-12 years.	Topics: 1) Professionalism 2) Human Relationships 3) Child & Youth Development 4) Developmentally Appropriate Practice 5) Environment 6) Activities & Curriculum 7) Guidance I 8) Guidance II 9) Diversity 10) Health & Safety

CENTER-BASED	FAMILY-Hybrid
Putnam County Tennessee Tech University Foundation Hall Room 216 August 5-9, 2019 8:30 am to 2:30 pm	Putnam County Face to Face Tennessee Tech University Foundation Hall Room 216 July 27 and September 14- 8:30am to 2:30 Online Portion August 4, 11, 18, 25 September 1,7

“This project is funded by the Center of Excellence for Learning Sciences at Tennessee State University through a Contract with the Department of Human Services.”