

Tennessee Tech University

Department of Foreign Languages

FRENCH 1020, Section 001 MWF 11:15-12:10 Oakley Hall 214

French 1020: Essentials of French, developing listening and reading comprehension, oral and written communication, and cultural understanding.

3 credit hours, pre-requisite: FREN 1010 or placement credit

Instructor Information: Dr. Debbie Barnard Office: Oakley Hall, Rm. 220 Phone: 372-3773

E-Mail: dbarnard@tnitech.edu

Office Hours: Office Hours: MWF 9-10, MW 3-4, and by appointment

Texts & Materials: Espaces (4th edition, Supersite Plus access) and accompanying online workbook from Vista Higher Learning. Once you have purchased an access code, go to www.vhlcentral.com to set up your account and to access the online book and workbook.

Material To Be Covered: Espaces, unités 6-10.

Course Objectives: The primary objective of this course is to help you develop the necessary skills to communicate proficiently in French and to function effectively within the culture in real-life situations. By the end of the course, you should be able to:

--Understand most written and spoken French selected for beginning learners

[Communication: Interpretive (Listen, Read/View)];

--Speak and write in simple sentences with minor grammatical errors that do not impede communication

[Communication: Interpersonal (Speak, Write, Listen)]

[Communication: Presentational (Speak, Write, Listen)];

--Speak with pronunciation sufficiently accurate so as not to impede communication

[Communication: Presentational (Speak, Listen, Read/View)];

--Ask and answer oral and written questions related to familiar topics, such as travel, food, and present and past activities

[Communication: Interpersonal (Speak, Write, Listen, Read/View)];

--Describe people, places, and things in the past

[Communication: Presentational (Speak, Write, Listen, Read/View)];

--Converse on an elementary level, observing basic courtesy requirements and social demands of the culture

[Communication: Interpersonal (Speak, Listen, Read/View)]

--Understand the diverse culture of the Francophone world and describe some of its basic geographical facts.

[Cultures (Relating Cultural Products to Perspectives)]

Methodology: This is a flipped class. That means:

-Before each class period, you will learn with new vocabulary and grammar structures on your own

-You will take notes on the new vocab by making flash cards for each word, to turn in on the day of the chapter test

-You will take notes on the grammar explanations using the attached format, to turn in on the day of the chapter test

-You'll have online activities to complete for each grammar point. The activities will give you instant feedback, so you'll know immediately if you understood the explanation, or if you need to go back over it

We'll spend class time practicing new structures in class, but we won't necessarily go over them, so taking good notes and completing all of the assigned online activities are key to passing the course. You'll speak a great deal of French in class—role-playing, making up sentences, reviewing and re-using what you’ve already learned—with both your classmates and the professor.

Homework: Fifty percent of your final grade will be based on activities that require you to read and study grammar lessons BEFORE you come to class. You will have vocabulary to memorize, grammar lessons to review and study, and PowerPoints to view to help you understand what we will be working on in class. For each lesson that you review outside of class, you will have online activities to complete and turn in BEFORE class each day. You must also turn in your notes on the grammar explanations for each unité the day of each test.

Participation: Forty percent of your final grade will be based on activities that require you to use what you studied the night before in class. You will have dialogs, speaking, reading, and writing activities, and required short conversations with your fellow students. If you participate in these activities fully, and give them your complete attention, then you will earn 2 points for the day's participation grade. If you show up to class but do not participate, then you earn 1 point for the day's participation grade. Very little to no participation, or being absent, earns 0 points for the day's participation. At the end of the session, the number of participation points you've earned will be divided by the total number of possible participation points to determine your final grade.

Attendance: Attendance and participation are indispensable and are therefore mandatory. You are expected to come to class well prepared and participate each time. The University accords you 3 absences for the course; each absence after 3 will affect your final grade.

Evaluation: Your course grade will be computed as follows:

10% Notes

20% Online homework and lab activities/In-class written activities

20% Participation in class

50 % Unit Tests

Grading Scale: A=100-90, B=89-80, C=79-70, D=69-60, F=below 60

Disability Accommodation: Students with a disability requiring accommodations should contact the Accessible Education Center (AEC). An Accommodation Request (AR) should be completed as soon as possible, preferably by the end of the first week of the course. The AEC is located in the Roaden University Center, Room 112; phone 372-6119. For details, view the Tennessee Tech’s Policy 340 – Services for Students with Disabilities at Policy Central.

Student Academic Misconduct Policy: Maintaining high standards of academic integrity in every class at Tennessee Tech is critical to the reputation of Tennessee Tech, its students, alumni, and the employers of Tennessee Tech graduates. The Student Academic Misconduct Policy describes the definitions of academic misconduct and policies and procedures for addressing Academic Misconduct at Tennessee Tech. For details, view the Tennessee Tech’s Policy 217 – Student Academic Misconduct at Policy Central.

Course Dates: The instructor reserves the right to modify the following calendar as course needs dictate. DO NOT LOOK FOR YOUR HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS ON THIS SYLLABUS. Your homework assignment for each class period will be on the calendar that you get at the beginning of each leçon.

Guidelines for Success in FREN 1020: By initialing each item and signing below, you acknowledge that you understand and accept the Guidelines for Success in FREN 1020.

1. I understand and accept that I must study vocabulary and learn new grammar concepts on my own, BEFORE I come to each class period Student initials: _____

2. I understand and accept that in order to be able to review new vocabulary and grammar concepts, I must have access to the online version of Contacts textbook and student activities manual

Student initials: _____

3. I understand that I am responsible for contacting Contacts tech support IMMEDIATELY at support.vhlcentral.com if I have trouble using the online materials

Student initials: _____

4. I understand and accept that if I don't have access to a personal computer, I will still be held accountable for completing each evening's assignment, since Tennessee Tech has computer labs that I can use before and after class in order to complete my work

Student initials: _____

5. I understand and accept that I must take make paper and audio flashcards for all new vocabulary, and turn them in for the professor to review on the day of each test Student initials: _____

6. I understand and accept that I must take notes on all new grammar concepts, and turn those notes in for the professor to review on the day of each test Student initials: _____

7. I understand and accept that I must complete all assigned online activities for a course period BEFORE coming to class, and that failure to do so will result in a grade of zero for all uncompleted activities, regardless of the reason for not completing them Student initials: _____

8. I understand and accept that I can do the online activities as often as possible to make sure that I understand the grammar point that each activity covers Student initials: _____

9. I understand and accept that I must participate fully in class, and that not understanding a concept or not knowing the vocabulary is not an excuse for not doing an exercise in class: I will receive a zero for the day if I do not participate Student initials:

10. I understand and accept that I am responsible for my own learning and understanding in this course, and that it is up to me to do all that I can to make sure I understand and can apply everything that FREN 1020 covers

Student initials: _____

I acknowledge that I understand and accept each of the guidelines listed above, and will follow them to the best of my ability in FREN 1020

Student name

Student signature and date

Witness name

Witness signature

The Cornell Note-taking System

2 1/2"	6"
Cue Column	Note-taking Column
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Record: During the lecture, use the note-taking column to record the lecture using telegraphic sentences.2. Questions: As soon after class as possible, formulate questions based on the notes in the right-hand column. Writing questions helps to clarify meanings, reveal relationships, establish continuity, and strengthen memory. Also, the writing of questions sets up a perfect stage for exam-studying later.3. Recite: Cover the note-taking column with a sheet of paper. Then, looking at the questions or cue-words in the question and cue column only, say aloud, in your own words, the answers to the questions, facts, or ideas indicated by the cue-words.4. Reflect: Reflect on the material by asking yourself questions, for example: "What's the significance of these facts? What principle are they based on? How can I apply them? How do they fit in with what I already know? What's beyond them?"5. Review: Spend at least ten minutes every week reviewing all your previous notes. If you do, you'll retain a great deal for current use, as well as, for the exam.
2"	Summary After class, use this space at the bottom of each page to summarize the notes on that page.