

Title: On the Construction of the Real Numbers

Abstract: In this talk, we will examine several different ways to construct the set of real numbers. Three basic constructions will be presented, two coming from the field of rational numbers, and one from the group of integers.