¹ UNIV 1020 or equivalent is required for first time freshmen. Students not required to take UNIV 1020 may take a general elective (it does not have to be a one-hour course). See your academic advisor.

² Any general education mathematics course.

³ The minimum is a course in a specific language. None of the "Country and the People" courses are acceptable.

- A total of 120 hours is required for graduation with a minimum of 36 hours at the upper level
- Each student is personally responsible for completing all degree requirements and for informing himself/herself of these requirements. A student's advisor MAY NOT assume these responsibilities. (TTU Undergraduate Catalog)
- Apply for graduation TWO semesters in advance
- Students who complete the above B.S. SOCJ requirements automatically fulfill the requirements for the Certificate of Program Completion in Criminal Justice. Please see the criminal justice secretary prior to graduation. (DN 321)
