

THE CITL REPORT

A newsletter of pedagogy, technology, and current trends in instructional design

SO YOU THINK YOU CAN ILEARN and the winner is..... Donald Sowers

Donald Sowers is a retired attorney who has a Juris Doctor degree from Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles. Before becoming a part of the Tennessee Tech faculty as an adjunct instructor, he was an instructor at the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Academy for 28 years.

CITL's Instructional Design Team used the newly implemented Online Course Design Checklist to evaluate all courses submitted to the "So You Think You Can iLearn" course design competition. Within his course, Donald utilized effective external resources for instructional content and provided links to all assessments. He implemented videos to establish instructor presence and offered students opportunities for students to experience real-world emergency management.

Be sure to watch the Winner Announcement video to see more of Donald's online course design strategies as well as highlights from all competition entries.

A huge thanks to all faculty that submitted entries to the "So You Think You Can iLearn" competition!
