

THE CITL REPORT

A newsletter of pedagogy, technology, and current trends in instructional design

CITL NOVEMBER WORKSHOP SERIES

Tuesdays @ 11 am via Microsoft Teams

Video Projects offer a unique way to engage students and provide alternative assessment and creative course design. This 3-part workshop series will share ideas on expanding the use of instructor videos, as well as ways to incorporate student videos in your class.

- Watch a recording of Part 1
- Register for Part 2
- Register for Part 3

A graphic for the Video Projects Workshop Series. It features a dark purple background with a yellow border. The text "Join us for the VIDEO PROJECTS Workshop Series" is written in a mix of white and yellow fonts. Below this, it says "TUESDAYS AT 11 AM | MICROSOFT TEAMS" in yellow. To the left is a white icon of a video camera with a play button on its screen. To the right, the dates "TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2", "TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9", and "TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16" are listed in yellow.

Join us for the
VIDEO PROJECTS
Workshop Series

TUESDAYS AT 11 AM | MICROSOFT TEAMS

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16

TN Open Education Hub

November 12, 2021
2-3:30 PM | Zoom

- Learn how to develop and find resources on the TN Open Education Hub
- Connect with faculty developing affordable course materials
- Increase student access and student success

Register

Group Work

In case you missed it, check out our October workshop series on Group Work!

YuJa Media Student Resources

Visit the "How To" section on our YuJa Media Student Resource page for information, guided tutorials, and more for each step of the video process from creating and editing to publishing.