

Lenly J Weathers, Ph.D.

Associate Professor

Department: Civil & Environmental Engineering

LWeathers@tntech.edu

Prescott Hall (PRSC) 339

PO Box: 5015

(931) 372-6539

Expertise in fate and transport of pollutants in the environment; transformation of chlorinated compounds; oxidized metals and other pollutants in anaerobic environments in the presence of metallic iron

More Information

Educational Background:

Ph.D., Civil and Environmental Engineering, The University of Iowa, 1995

M.S., Civil Engineering, Texas A&M University, 1990

M.S., Mechanical Engineering, The University of Missouri, 1987

B.S., Mechanical Engineering, The University of Missouri, 1982

Recent Publications:

Weathers, L.J., Fostering Critical Thinking Skills in an Environmental Engineering Water and Wastewater Treatment Class Through A Hands-On Semester Project, 2008 ASEE Southeast Section Conference, Memphis, TN, April, 2008.