You agree to abide by Tennessee Tech Policy 732 regarding Intellectual Property, and hereby acknowledge that any copyrightable work, other than your scholarly works as manifested in text books and journal articles, will be the intellectual property of Tennessee Tech. You further agree that your responsibilities under this policy require you to disclose any patentable inventions developed by you, either solely or jointly with others, during the term of your employment, and that you hereby assign all such inventions to Tennessee Tech. You further agree to otherwise assist Tennessee Tech as required by policy in protecting rights it may have in the intellectual property developed by you, including without limitation, the execution of all documents necessary to register, patent or perfect the assignment of the intellectual property.*
