Changes greater than 10% explained

Note 1: There has been a general increase in travel campus wide over the year. Most changes to accounts are $5,000 or less. Some of the larger increases are as follows: Faculty recruitment cost increased $22,880. The International Education Fee travel monies made available for travel have increased $95,750 as we focus on the whole education experience. The Special Academic course fee instructional travel has increase $36,080 for Engineering and $22,360 for Business. As more emphasis is being put on making processes electronic and more efficient departments such as the Business Office and Information Technology have increased their conference travel budgets $16,000 and $25,000 respectively. In support of our Capital Campaign University Advanceme has increased travel by $23,150. A large part of the increase is due to Athletics which increased travel by $330,000 in support of various programs as the year progress and to support post season play. These increases were supported by increased game guarantees, ticket sales, and conference shared revenue. Some of the larger increases were Football, Basketball, and Baseball.

Note 2: The majority of the change in Capital Outlay is a $152,400 increase of the Engineering Special Academic Course Fee to support the purchase of Instructional equipment. Another $31,000 w Technology Access Fee allocations, and $21,660 for the Library.
