

Provost's Office Hours

Provost Lori Mann Bruce is holding monthly office hours for all faculty, staff, and students. She welcomes you to use this time as an opportunity to tell her what's on your mind, and share your experiences, ideas, and aspirations for Tennessee Tech University.

Office hours will be held in the Office of the Provost, Derryberry Hall Room 202, unless otherwise specified. No appointment is necessary; Provost Bruce will meet with office hour visitors in the order in which they arrive.

The schedule is subject to change, but this page will be kept current as adjustments are made. Please check back for updates.
