The first attempt is the course you took first. The second attempt is the course that you took to repeat the first attempt.

REPEAT INFORMATION

A student may repeat a course which was previously taken and received a final grade of C or lower. A course may be repeated with only the first attempt being replaced by the second attempt. Any successive attempts will count in the cumulative grade point average with the last attempt standing as the grade in the course and only the last attempt for that course fulfilling the graduation requirement. Courses used to complete the graduation requirement must have a passing grade. For more information, view the Repetition of Courses in the Undergraduate Catalog.
