Determining the First Serve

- ✓ To determine the serve in the first game of the first set, players/teams will volley. Once the ball has legally crossed the net three times, the ball will be "live."
- ✓ The person or team that wins the volley has choice of serve/receive or side

Service

- ✓ Serving Method
 - Before the server begins to serve, the server must stand with both feet behind the baseline within the center mark and sideline. The partner must give a clear view of the server.
 - The service always begins to the right of center mark and is made to the opponent's right service court. After each point is played, service courts are changed for the next service in alternating fashion. Teams shall alternate server.
 - Once the server and receiver are ready, the serve shall commence. The server shall project the ball by hand into the air in any direction and strike it with his racket before it hits the ground. The server has two attempts to put the ball in play without committing a fault.
 - The ball must clear the net and land within or on the proper service court lines before being hit by the receiver. After the service, the ball may be hit before it bounces.
- ✓ Serving Order
 - At the end of the first game, the receiver/receiving team shall become the server/serving team, and the server/serving team shall become the receiver/receiving team. This order is repeated throughout the match.
- ✓ Serving Violations
 - Foot Fault
 - The server changes his position by walking or running.

- The server touches the baseline with either foot.
- Service Faults
 - The server assumes the wrong position before serving.
 - The server misses the ball while attempting to hit it.
 - The server fails to hit the ball into proper service court.
 - The served ball hits a permanent structure other than the net, strap or band.
 - The server hits his/her partner or anything he wears or carries with the served ball.
- Double Fault
 - If the server omits two consecutive foot faults and/or service faults, he or she shall lose the point.

The Return

- ✓ Some examples of legal returns:
 - The ball touches the top of a net post or net and falls into play in the proper court.
 - If the player's racket passes over the net after he has returned the ball, provided the ball passes the net before being played and is properly returned.
 - If the ball is returned outside the post either above or below the level of the top of the net, even though it touches the post, provided that it hits the ground within the proper court.

The Let

- ✓ A let service shall be called when a served ball touches the net, band or strap and lands within or on the proper service court lines.
- ✓ A let service is called if a service is delivered before the receiver is ready. However, if the receiver tries to return the ball he/she is considered to have been ready.
- ✓ When a let occurs on a service, only that service is repeated. If it occurs during play, the point is replayed
- ✓ A let may be called when a player is unable to play the ball due to circumstances beyond his control, such as interference by a ball or player from another court.

During the Rally

- ✓ A player loses the point if the following occurs:
 - A player or team fails to return the ball directly over the net before it has hit the ground twice consecutively.
 - A player or team returns the ball in play so that it hits the ground, a permanent fixture (other than the net, posts or singles sticks, cord or metal cable, strap or band), or other object outside any of the lines which bound their opponent's court.
 - A player or team volleys the ball and fails to make a good return even when outside the court.
 - A player or team deliberately carries or catches the ball in play on their racket or deliberately touches it with their racket more than once.
 - A player's racket touches the net, post or the ground within their opponent's court at any time while that ball is in play.
 - A player or team volleys the ball before it has passed the net.
 - The ball in play touches the player or anything that the player wears or carries other than the racket.
 - A player or team throws their racket at and hits the ball.
 - A player or team deliberately commits any act that hinders their opponent in returning the ball.
