

The following are specific announcements published in Tech Times:

- Research and Creative Inquiry Day Set for Monday & Tuesday, April 8 and 9, 2019

jlmurdock@tntech.edu | x 6587

This year's Research and Creative Inquiry Day, designed to promote student research and creative inquiry, will be Mon., April 8 (poster setup and judging & paper presentations) and Tues., April 9 (general viewing and award ceremony). Posters will be in the Hooper Eblen Center, and paper presentations will be in the Volpe Library, Room 248. Students must submit an abstract (limited to 250 words) of their project via the abstract submission link by 11:59 p.m., Wed., March 13. No abstracts will be accepted after this date. A schedule and guidelines are on the Office of Research website. Contact Jamie Murdock (jlmurdock@tntech.edu) for more information.

Post Date 2/6/2019 Tech Times. (Under Events in Student Edition)

- Judges Needed for Research and Creative Inquiry Day to be Held April 8 and 9

jlmurdock@tntech.edu | x 6587

Research and Creative Inquiry Day promotes student research and creative inquiry from multiple disciplines and provides a venue to present that work. Therefore, we need judges from all departments. If you are willing to serve as a judge, please register at the judge registration link. Judging will be from 4 to 6 p.m. on Monday, April 8, in the Hooper Eblen Center. A schedule, as well as information regarding abstract submission and the evaluation rubrics that will be used by the judges, can be found on the Office of Research website. Contact Jamie Murdock at jlmurdock@tntech.edu for more information.

nclark@tntech.edu | (931) 372-3202
<https://www.tntech.edu/research/committees-supported/faculty-research-committee#facultyresearchgrants>

The Faculty Research Committee is soliciting proposals for funding for 2019-20. The application deadline is noon on Thursday, January 24, 2019. Proposals may be submitted electronically to nclark@tntech.edu or one hard copy delivered to the Office of Research in Derryberry Hall, Room 155. Application materials are available online at <https://www.tntech.edu/research/committees-supported/faculty-research-committee#facultyresearchgrants>. Please be sure to review the Faculty Research Program Handbook for specific information regarding the application procedure and eligibility guidelines.

Set to post on Wednesday, Jan. 16, hopefully Dewayne will run it until deadline.

- Office of Research Unveils New Format for Intent to Submit Form
amyhill@tntech.edu | (931) 372-3464
www.tntech.edu/machform/view.php?id=714155

The Office of Research’s Intent to Submit form, which is accessible on the forms page under the Pre-Award tab, is now available in an online-submission format that replaces the former PDF form that had to be downloaded and routed via email. Once the new online form is submitted, its data will automatically be sent to the Office of Research, deans, chairs, and Centers and Center-support personnel (if applicable) of the PI. For technical questions concerning the form, please contact Mark Lynam at mdlynam@tntech.edu or (931) 372-3673. The Office of Research requires researchers who are preparing proposals to turn in an Intent to Submit form as soon as possible, but preferably no later than 30 days before the proposal is due.

Set to run in 12/10-12/14/2018 Tech Times.

jlmurdock@tntech.edu | x 6587

<https://www.tntech.edu/research/research-day/#tab-1454692912845>

Research and Creative Inquiry Day is an annual event designed to promote student research and creative inquiry and provide a venue for presenting that work. This event is open to undergraduate and graduate students from all departments who want to display their research and creative projects. The 14th Annual Research and Creative Inquiry Day will be held on Monday, April 8 (poster setup and judging) and Tuesday, April 9 (general viewing and award ceremony) in the Hooper Eblen Center. In order to register for the event, a project abstract must be submitted via the abstract submission portal, which will open on Friday, February 1. This year's abstract submission deadline is Wednesday, March 13, 2019. No abstracts will be accepted after this date. Abstract guidelines can be found under the Research Day Guidelines tab at the Office of Research website: www.tntech.edu/research/research-day, and the abstract submission link will be provided in January 2019. It is expected that each submitted abstract will be developed into a poster to be presented at the April event. Note: English department abstracts will be developed into a paper. Please share this information with your students and consider including information related to Research and Creative Inquiry Day, as appropriate, in your spring course syllabi. Set to run in 12/6, 12/7, 12/10/, 12/11, and 12/12/2018 Tech Times.

- Reminder of Office of Research Guidelines on Proposal Submissions

jlmurdock@tntech.edu | (931) 372-6587

www.tntech.edu/research/proposal-development-resources/getting-started-with-a-grant/

This is a reminder that the Office of Research asks that complete proposals be received in our office five (5) working days from the Sponsor or Funding Agency deadline to ensure that there is time for an internal review prior to submission. The purpose of this internal deadline is to ensure that the proposal meets all federal, state, funding agency, and TTU guidelines. Specific information regarding the items that are reviewed during the five-day period can be found at the link provided. Please note that due to a variety of factors including the rollout of several new submission systems and implementation of Tech's new grant management system, the Office of Research is no longer able to receive and submit proposals on the same day. Therefore, we must receive your ready-to-submit proposal package and signed Proposal Endorsement Form (PEF) in our office at least 24 hours prior to the deadline. No revisions will be allowed after that time. In submissions utilizing Fastlane, grants.gov, or other electronic submission systems, the complete package must be released to our office at least 24 hours prior to the deadline or it will not be submitted. Submitted to Tech Times to run: 6/7, 6/8, 6/11-6/14/2018

The Office of Research would like to conduct our Grant Administration Boot Camp training for individuals who provide support to faculty conducting externally funded research or public service activities. We will be providing a number of different training modules throughout the year on pre- and post-award management, compliance, and post-award financial management. The first two trainings have been scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, July 10 & 11 from 9-11am in Southwest Hall 145. For the July 10 training we will discuss the "Role of the Bookkeeper" and July 11 will cover "The Life Cycle of a Grant". If you bookkeep on an externally funded project, you are strongly encouraged to attend.

Research and Creative Inquiry Day is an annual event designed to promote student research and creative inquiry and provide a venue for presenting that work. This event is open to undergraduate and graduate students from all departments who want to display their research and creative projects. In addition to the traditional poster format, the English Department will be utilizing a paper presentation format. Please remind your students that the abstract submission deadline is Wednesday, March 14 (abstracts can be submitted at <https://www.tntech.edu/machform/view.php?id=570202>).

Since students from all disciplines participate in this event, we need judges from all departments. Poster judging will take place from 4 to 6 p.m. on Monday, April 9, in the Hooper Eblen Center. Paper presentations will occur in the Volpe Library Instruction Room 248, and judging will be coordinated by the English Department. General viewing of the posters will take place between 9 and 11 a.m. on Tuesday, April 10. The complete schedule for Research and Creative Inquiry Day, as well as the evaluation rubrics (research project, literature-based study, and paper presentation for the English Department only) that will be used by the judges, can be found on the Office of Research website at <https://www.tntech.edu/research/research-day>. If you are willing to serve as a poster judge, please submit the form from the following link: <https://www.tntech.edu/machform/view.php?id=574589>.

Debbie Pennebaker recently joined the Office of Research staff as its new Financial Associate. She will be involved in the post-award bookkeeping for grants, which will include helping principal investigators monitor their budgets to ensure expenditures are authorized, communicating with the PIs and university staff to resolve budget management issues, and reviewing invoices to ensure compliance with university policy and federal regulations. Pennebaker had already been a part of the TTU family since 2015 in various roles as Administrative Assistant at the Cookeville Higher Education Campus, Financial Associate for the Associate Vice President of Enrollment Management, and as Interim Scholarship Manager.

"I'm looking forward to the opportunities and challenges this position with the Office of Research offers me as I learn new aspects of the university and the grant funding process," said Pennebaker.

Dates to run 2/23, 2/26-2/28, 3/1, 3/2/2018.

- Annual Scholastic Research Award Applications due by March 12

jlmurdock@tntech.edu | #6587

www.tntech.edu/research/committees-supported/university-research-advisory-committee

The Annual Scholastic Research Award is a university-wide award for scholarship, based on externally sponsored research grants, works published, or innovative research performed or exhibited in the preceding calendar year. Applications are open to all tenure-track or tenured faculty, with one award reserved for tenure-track faculty and one award reserved for tenured faculty, for a total of two awards. Each awardee will receive a monetary prize in the amount of $1,500.

A complete application consists of the following items:

1. Evidence of 1-3 peer-reviewed publications, external grants, or performances, or evidence of 1-3 items included in a juried exhibition (or a combination thereof). Each of the 3 items submitted for consideration must have been secured, published, performed or exhibited during the preceding calendar year (January 1 – December 31). Evidence can include, but is not limited to, the following: Copies of published writings or compositions, programs and reviews of exhibitions or performances, or any other item attesting to grants, publications, performances or exhibitions of work in the applicant's discipline.
2. A 150-word narrative for each item submitted, explaining the importance of the work and the relevance to the applicant's larger discipline.
3. A scholarship-focused CV, not to exceed 3 pages.

Application materials must be submitted electronically to jlmurdock@tntech.edu on or before Monday, March 12.

The University Research Advisory Committee will review applications each spring semester and award winners will be announced each April at the Faculty Recognition Reception.

jlmurdock@tntech.edu | (931) 372-6587
www.tbr.edu/oesi/student-engagement-retention-and-success-initiative-sers-instructions-and-information

TBR recently released information regarding the 2018 TBR Student Engagement, Retention, and Success (SERS) initiative. The 2018 SERS grant application and information regarding eligibility and program types, as well as answers to Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs), can be found on the TBR Office of Organizational Effectiveness website found at the link provided.

SERS grant funds are designed to support new or existing campus services or programs that:

- serve underrepresented or other targeted student populations including, but not limited to, underrepresented minorities, economically disadvantaged students, adults, veterans, and individuals with disabilities;
- close gaps of retention, graduation, or other metrics for underrepresented minorities, PELL recipients, or other targeted student populations;
- have the potential to significantly increase and/or impact educational attainment levels or further diversity initiatives at the institution; or

- produce outcomes that correspond to the TBR or institution strategic goals; Completion Agenda; and/or the Drive to 55/Complete College TN Act.

This is a limited submission program. TTU is permitted to submit up to five (5) applications, which makes necessary an internal review to select the proposals that will be submitted to the TBR. Therefore, the cover page and grant proposal narrative part of the application package must be submitted to the TTU Office of Research by noon on Friday, January 26, via the research@tntech.edu email account.

- GrantForward Trial Extension

jlmurdock@tntech.edu | (931) 372-6587

www.tntech.edu/research/find-funding/grantforward-trial

Thank you to all who participated in the GrantForward trial over the last month. We recognize that many faculty are not available in the summer, and because of the limited amount of feedback we were able to collect pertaining to GrantForward, we have decided to extend the trial through the end of December. During this time, we will continue to subscribe to InfoEd SPIN so both platforms will be available for use by faculty in identifying funding opportunities. The Office of Research will also continue to explore other funding database subscription service options during this time. To participate in the trial, please go to the GrantForward Trial link provided and follow the instructions to join the trial.

www.tntech.edu/research/find-funding/grantforward-trial

In response to changes to the InfoEd SPIN platform and feedback received from faculty users, the Office of Research is exploring other options for identifying funding opportunities and is currently signed up for a free trial of GrantForward (<https://www.grantforward.com>). We would like to encourage faculty to participate in this trial during the month of June and provide us with feedback by June 26 to assist in the selection of a funding database subscription service. A separate email will be sent to those who create an account to collect feedback. To participate, please go to the link GrantForward Trial link provided and follow the instructions to join the trial.

mdlynam@tntech.edu

(931) 372-3673

<https://www.tntech.edu/research/era-smartgrant-home-page>

The Office of Research is pleased to inform you that it has secured, under contract with ERA SmartGrant, an electronic research administration software that will assist the University in conducting research administration (pre-award and post-award processes) in an integrated and automated environment. The software will allow for electronic routing and approving of forms and documents and more efficient storage and retrieval of information related to your proposals and funded grants. Initial roll-out is scheduled for September 2017, but use of the system will be phased in gradually by unit. Each unit will be informed when their implementation will begin. Thank you for your patience as we phase in this system. For more information, please contact the Office of Research at research@tntech.edu. Also, visit our website at for more information as it becomes available.

- Early Proposal Submission for Christmas and New Years' Holidays

research@tntech.edu | (931) 372-3374

<https://www.tntech.edu/research/proposal-development-resources>

Due to the upcoming Christmas and New Years' holidays, the Office of Research requests that faculty let us know of any proposals in progress that are due before Christmas or immediately after New Year's. The deadline to submit information on those proposals to our office is Thursday, December 17. TTU offices will be closed through January 1 and will reopen on January 4. For questions, please call (931) 372-3374.

- Five-Day Internal Deadline for Proposal Submission to the Office of Research

research@tntech.edu | (931) 372-6587

<https://www.tntech.edu/research/>

Faculty should submit proposals to the Office of Research five days prior to the agency deadline to allow Research staff the time to review them for mechanical errors and content, and more importantly, to ensure that proposals are responsive to the program solicitation and comply with all applicable agency requirements and/or federal guidelines. This helps guarantee a more favorable review by the funding agency, which in turn, leads to more successful funding attempts. Proposals that are not received by the OR five days prior to the agency deadline may not receive a formal review or may not be submitted.

- Office of Research Offers Faculty Forum on Emerging Issues and Sponsored Programs

research@tntech.edu | (931) 372-3673

<https://www.tntech.edu/research/announcements>

The Office of Research is offering a Faculty Forum on "Emerging Issues and Sponsored Programs" from 3 to 4 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 19. The session will be repeated at the same time on Friday, Nov. 20, for those who cannot attend the Thursday forum. The event will be held in Southwest Hall, Room 145, and will offer information and question-and-answer sessions on the guidelines and procedures that impact Principal Investigators seeking external funding. For more information, please email research@tntech.edu.

- NSF Announces New Proposal and Award Policies and Procedures Guide (PAPPG)

ssparks@tntech.edu | (931) 372-3202

www.tntech.edu/research/research-compliance/pappg

The NSF Proposal and Award Policies and Procedures Guide \(PAPPG\), (NSF 16-1) has been issued. The new PAPPG will be effective for proposals submitted, or due, on or after January 25, 2016. Significant changes include:

- Enforcement of 5 p.m. submitter's local time across all NSF funding opportunities;
- Implementation of NSF's Public Access Policy;
- Submission of proposal certifications by the Authorized Organizational Representative (AOR) concurrently with proposal submission;
- NSF's implementation of the US Government Policy for Institutional Oversight of Life Sciences on Dual Use Research of Concern;

- Provision of Collaborators and Other Affiliations information as a new single-copy document, instead of as part of the Biographical Sketch;
- Submission of Biographical Sketches and Current and Pending Support separately for each senior personnel;
- Electronic signature and submission of notifications and requests by the AOR only;
- Revision of timeframe for submission of final project reports, project outcomes reports and financial closure of awards to 120 days after the award end date; and
- Numerous clarifications throughout the document.

While this version of the PAPPG becomes effective on January 25, 2016, in the interim, the guidelines contained in the current PAPPG (NSF 15-1) continue to apply. The current version of the PAPPG will remain on the NSF website, with a notation to proposers that specifies when the new PAPPG (including a link to the new Guide) will become effective.

For questions, please email policy@nsf.gov.

Congratulations to the following researchers who received externally funded contracts and grants during the month of August 2015. PI Sheikh Ghafoor, computer science, and Co-PI Michael Rogers, computer science, earned $49,973 from the National Science Foundation for their project titled "iPDC: Integrating Parallel and Distributed Computing in Introductory Programming." The National Science Foundation also awarded PI Laura Chavez, chemical engineering, $35,000 for her project on the use of membrane technologies for reclaiming water and wastewater and awarded PI Jesse Carrick, chemistry, and Co-PIs Daniel Swartling, chemistry; Jeffrey Rice, chemical engineering; William Carroll, chemistry; and Xuanzhi Zhan, chemistry, $410,480 toward the acquisition of a multinuclear 500 MHz NMR spectrometer. PI Shawn Krosnick, biology, earned $10,000 from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for the project titled "Analysis of Self-Compatibility, Germination, Shade Tolerance, and Plasticity of the Endangered Plant Physaria globosa." PI Robby Sanders, chemical engineering, and Co-PI Melissa Geist, nursing, earned $11,499 from Venturewell for his project titled "Idea to Commercially-Viable Healthcare Solutions: Enhancement and Expansion of Clinical Immersion at Disciplinary Interfaces Course." PI Anthony Baker, English, and Co-PI Jane Baker, curriculum and instruction, earned $10,000 from the National Writing Project for their project titled "Tennessee Upper Cumberland Writing Project." PI Ambareen Siraj, computer science, and Co-PI Sheikh Ghafoor, computer science, earned $176,219 from the National Science Foundation for their project titled "Collaborative Research: CyberWorkshops: Resources and Strategies for Teaching Cybersecurity in Computer Science." The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service awarded PI Justin Murdock, biology, $10,804 toward his project titled "Monitoring for Didymosphenia geminata ; An Environmental DNA Approach." The Tennessee Board of Regents awarded PI Rabie Belkacemi, electrical and computer engineering, and Co-PIs Hicham Chaoui, electrical and computer engineering; Jeffrey Austen, electrical and computer engineering; Robert Craven, Center for Energy Systems Research; Satish Mahajan, Center for Energy Systems Research; and Vahid Motevalli, College of Engineering, $40,000 for their project titled "Self-Charging Autonomous Aerial Vehicle for Power Lines Inspection." PI Ali Alouani, electrical and computer engineering, earned $12,000 from the Arnold Engineering Development Center for his project titled "CAPSTONE: Design and Development of a Digital Frequency Counter." The University of Tennessee awarded $20,000 to PI Meenakshi Sundaram, mechanical engineering, for the project titled "UT-CIS Contract for 2015-16" and $15,000 for the Capstone portion of the project. PI Adam Anderson, electrical and computer engineering, was awarded $31,809 from Oak Ridge National Lab for his project titled "Consulting in Areas of Applied Signal Processing and Advanced Communications Techniques." Tennessee State University, via the Tennessee Department of Human Services, awarded PI Melinda Anderson, human ecology, $3,000 for her project titled "Tennessee Early Childhood Training Alliance (TECTA), 2015-16."

- Reminder for Faculty to Update Their Research Training

ssparks@tntech.edu | (931) 372-3202
<https://www.tntech.edu/research/training>

All faculty are reminded to update their Responsible Conduct of Research, Human Subjects, Export Controls, and all other training applicable to their projects. Note: Faculty are only required to take the Responsible Conduct in Research module at this time. The Misconduct module includes the human subjects and export controls training. Anyone who needs to complete the additional human subjects/export controls modules (which go into more detail) will be notified by Sammie Sparks or the IRB Committee.

Beginning July 1, 2015, this training must be completed through the Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) training modules. Visit <https://www.tntech.edu/research/training> for more information, including a step-by-step guide to the CITI registration process. Please send your certificates of completion to Sammie Sparks at ssparks@tntech.edu or Campus Box 5036.

Congratulations to the following researchers who received externally funded contracts and grants during the month of July 2015. PI Stephen Robinson, physics, and Co-PI Holly Anthony, curriculum and instruction, are leading a project titled "TTU STEM Majors for Rural Teaching (TTU-SMaRT)" that received $309,347 from the National Science Foundation. PI Glenn Cunningham, mechanical engineering, and his team earned $210,000 from the U.S. Department of Energy for their project titled "Public-Private Partnership for a Comprehensive Workforce Development Plan to Stimulate Industrial Energy Efficiency and Demand Reduction." The Tennessee Department of Education awarded PI Ben Byler, agriculture, and his research team with $155,568 toward their project titled "Administrative Staff for Camp Clements FFA Leadership Training Center 2015-16." Tennessee State University, via the Tennessee Department of Human Services, awarded PI Melinda Anderson, human ecology, and her research team with $156,467 for their project titled "Tennessee Early Childhood Training Alliance (TECTA), 2015-16." The Tennessee Board of Regents awarded PI Chad Luke and Co-PI Tony Michael, both from counseling and psychology, $21,941 for their research project titled "Effects of Personality, Career and Development Factors on Intent to Return Among At-Risk and Underrepresented College Students." Phil Bettoli, Tennessee Cooperative Fishery Research Unit, earned $70,000 from the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency for the project titled "Status, Management, and Enhancement of Sport Fish Populations in Tennessee Reservoirs." Bettoli also earned $35,850 from the TWRA for his work titled "Asian Carp Impacts on Native Sport Fish." The U.S. Department of Energy awarded PI Raymond Kozub, physics, with $19,000 for his project titled "Nuclear Physics with Radioactive Ion Beams." PI Hayden Mattingly and Co-PI Carla

Hurt, both from biology, earned $24,000 from TWRA for their project titled “Environmental DNA Detection, Population Status, and Habitat use of the Pygmy Madtom, Noturus stanauli.” Carla Hurt also earned $4,843 from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service toward her project titled “Conservation Genetics of the Barrens Topminnow (Fundulus julisia).” PI Mattingly and Co-PI John Johansen, Water Center, earned $15,000 from TWRA for their project titled “Life History of the Obey Crayfish, Cambarus obeyensis: Implications for Species Conservation.” PI Stephen Scott, computer science, and support personnel Doug Talbert, computer science, earned $4,718 from Oak Ridge National Laboratories for a Joint Faculty Agreement. The Great Smoky Mountains National Park awarded PI Justin Murdock, biology, $9,777 toward his research titled “Determining Didymosphenia geminata (Didymo) Distribution and Colonization Potential in Tennessee Streams.” The National Science Foundation awarded PI Matthew Yarnold, civil and environmental engineering, with $63,201 for his project titled “Collaborative Research: Structural Identification and Health Monitoring Using Temperature-Driven Data.” PI Jason Beach, curriculum and instruction, and Jeremy Wendt, curriculum and instruction, earned $5,000 from the Tennessee Department of Education for their project titled “Special Ed Programs and Services, Assistive Technology Grant, 2013-2016.” TWRA awarded PI Tom Roberts, biology, with $2,000 for his project titled “Collecting Biological Data at TWRA Deer Check Stations.” PI Martha Howard, curriculum and instruction, and her team earned $86,532 from the Putnam County Schools for the project titled “Tennessee Early Childhood Pilot Program, 2015-2016,” and $8,175 from the Holland J. Stephens Center for their project titled “Healthy Start or Upper Cumberland Families and Young Children, 2015-16.” The Tennessee Board of Regents awarded PI Kevin Liska, Business Media Center, $7,000 toward the Perkins IV-2015 project. PI Robert Kissell, biology, earned $22,620 from the U.S. Department of the Interior, Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, for his project titled “Status and Distribution Survey of the Long-Tailed Weasel (Musetala frenatal) in Arkansas.”

Congratulations to the following researchers who received externally funded contracts and grants during the month of June 2015. PI Michael Best, agriculture, earned $25,000 from the U.S. Department of Agriculture for the project titled “USDA Community Facilities Grant—Oakley Farm” and another $25,000 from the USDA for a project titled “USDA Rural Business Development Grant—Oakley Farm.” PI Vahid Motevalli, associate dean of the College of Engineering, earned $64,122 from various agencies for a testing and design project. PI Satish Mahajan, director of the Center for Energy Systems Research, and Co-PIs Jie Cui, mechanical engineering; P.K. Rajan, Engineering administration; and Stephen Idem, mechanical engineering, earned $9,975 from various agencies also for a testing project. PI Joseph Biernacki was awarded a travel supplement from the National Science Foundation for his project titled “PFI: AIR Technology Translation-Computationally Designed Shrinkage Reducing Admixtures for Concrete.” PI Chris Burgin, counseling and psychology, earned $28,320 from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (via the National Institutes of Health) for his project titled “Anhedonia and Cardiac Autonomic Effort Deficits in MDD in the Lab and Daily Life.” NASA awarded PI David Huddleston, civil and environmental engineering, and support personnel Faisal Hossain, civil and environmental engineering, $27,600 for the project titled “The Future of Our Cities and Aging Dams: Using NASA Satellites to Understand Changing Patterns of Infrastructure Safety for Resource-Hungry U.S. Cities.” PI Mary Kidd, physics, received $2,400 from the Los Alamos National Laboratory for the project titled “Scintillator-Layered Imaging Microscope for Environmental Research.” The Water Center lab, including PI Bharat Soni, Vice President of Research and Economic Development, and support personnel Michael Kuley, Phillip Burr and Sandy Dodson, all of the Water Center, earned $60,208 toward analytical and computer services from various agencies.

- NSF Communication about Automated Compliance Checking and Proposal Submission

ssparks@tntech.edu | (931) 372-3202

<http://www.nsf.gov/pubs/2015/nsf15095/nsf15095.jsp>

- Should ONLY be uploaded as a PDF if the use of special character is required.
- Must include separate sections labeled “Overview,” “Intellectual Merit,” and “Broader Impacts” if uploaded as a PDF. PROJECT DESCRIPTION

- Must include “Results from Prior NSF Support” over the past five years for each PI and Co-PI.
- Must include a section—with a heading—for “Broader Impacts” of the proposed work.

Anyone planning to submit an NSF proposal in the future should please read the following announcement concerning NSF’s automated compliance checking and proposal submission system:

NSF has implemented new features for automated compliance checking in the FastLane system. NSF strongly encourages FastLane users to check proposals for compliance during the proposal preparation and submission process. The goals are to ensure consistency in NSF’s proposal submissions, to enhance the ease of submissions, to reduce the number of submitted proposals that will be returned without review, and to enable a greater number of meritorious ideas to advance. The current complete NSF Proposal Preparation Checklist can be found at http://www.nsf.gov/pubs/policydocs/pappguide/nsf15001/gpg_2.jsp#llex1.

Below please see the most common reasons for return without review for proposals previously submitted to the Engineering Directorate. NSF strongly encourages you to take these requirements into consideration when preparing and submitting proposals.

PROJECT SUMMARY

- Should ONLY be uploaded as a PDF if the use of special character is required.
- Must include separate sections labeled “Overview,” “Intellectual Merit,” and “Broader Impacts” if uploaded as a PDF.

Congratulations to the following researchers who received externally funded contracts and grants during the month of March 2015. PI Glenn Cunningham, mechanical engineering, earned $150,000 from the U.S. Department of Energy for the project titled "Public-Private Partnership for a Comprehensive Workforce Development Plan to Stimulate Industrial Energy Efficiency and Demand Reduction."

The National Science Foundation awarded PI Joseph Rencis, dean of the College of Engineering, and Co-PI Vahid Motevalli, associate dean of the College of Engineering, a grant of $124,577 for the project titled "REU Site: Summer Research Internships in Manufacturing and Techno-Entrepreneurship Preparation." Through NASA, Vanderbilt University awarded a grant for $22,100 to PI Corinne Darvennes, mechanical engineering, for the project titled "Tennessee Space Grant Consortium 2010-15." PI Holly Anthony, curriculum and instruction, received $3,000 from the Tennessee Higher Education Commission for a research project titled "Core to College Math Faculty Redesign Team." PI L.K. Crouch, civil and environmental engineering, received $1,000 from the Tennessee Department of Transportation for a research project titled "Developing a TDOT Class S-LH (Lower Heat) PCC Mixture Specification."

In April 2015, PI Robert Qiu, Manufacturing Center, received $47,794 from the National Science Foundation for a research project titled "Collaborative Research: Design, Analysis and Implementation of Social Interactions in Cognitive Radio Networks." PI Kevin Liska, of the Business Media Center, received $39,000 from the Tennessee Board of Regents for his project titled "TBR Ready2Teach 2014-15." Advanced Technology International awarded PI Ahmed Elsayy, manufacturing and engineering technology, $12,192 for his work titled "Developing a High Mobility Manufacturing Robot (HMMR) for Ship Compartments." PI Alfred Kalyanapu, civil and environmental engineering, received $48,999 from the University of Tennessee, via the U.S. Department of Agriculture, for his project titled "Increasing the Resilience of Agricultural Production in the Tennessee and Cumberland River Basins through More Efficient Water Resource Use." The Tennessee Department of Education awarded $30,000 to PI Ben Byler, agriculture, for his work titled "Administrative and Support Staff for Camp Clements FFA Leadership Training Camp 2011-15."
